Foreword

BECAUSE our school with its twenty-four nationalities represents a fair cross section of the world, the staff has chosen to make nationalities the theme of the 1939 Blue and Gray. The four division pages suggest Nordic, Central European, Southern European and Oriental peoples en route to the United States. The end sheets indicate the paths traveled by these peoples converging in the Santa Clara Valley.

Framework of the new wing.

Dedication

To the administrators of our high school in appreciation of their work in providing a modern and well equipped school plant, in conducting an efficiently run school, and in giving us four profitable and enjoyable years, the 1939 Blue and Gray staff dedicates this book.

The administration consists of the board of trustees, Thomas J. Straub, president; Claude Redwine, clerk; Chester Awalt, Mrs. Margaret Cheeseman, and D. J. Nordberg; Charles R. Crooke, principal and district superintendent; Floyd E. Wilder, vice-principal; Miss Caroline Wood, dean of girls; Miss Wilhelmina Barnhisel, registrar; and Miss Bernice Ielli, secretary.

Principal's Message

Principal Charles Crooke speaking: "Hello, Oh! Yes, SENIORS, I am delighted that you called me. It is always a pleasure to hear from you and especially now that you are graduating . . . . May I, speaking for your Board of Trustees, the faculty members, and the whole school administration, extend a word of congratulation to you at this time? . . . . Because we have been closely associated with you, because all of us have worked together, and because we have come to know you, we are very much interested in you and your welfare. You have our very best wishes for a rich and full journey from this school, regardless of what right direction you may take. Yes, we are sorry to see you go, but we realize you must move on . . . . No, not 'Good-by' not 'Farewell' just a sincere 'Thank You' for calling, and may we hear again and often from you?''

Mr. Claude Redwine

Mr. T. J. Straub

Mr. Chester Awalt

Mr. D. J. Nordberg

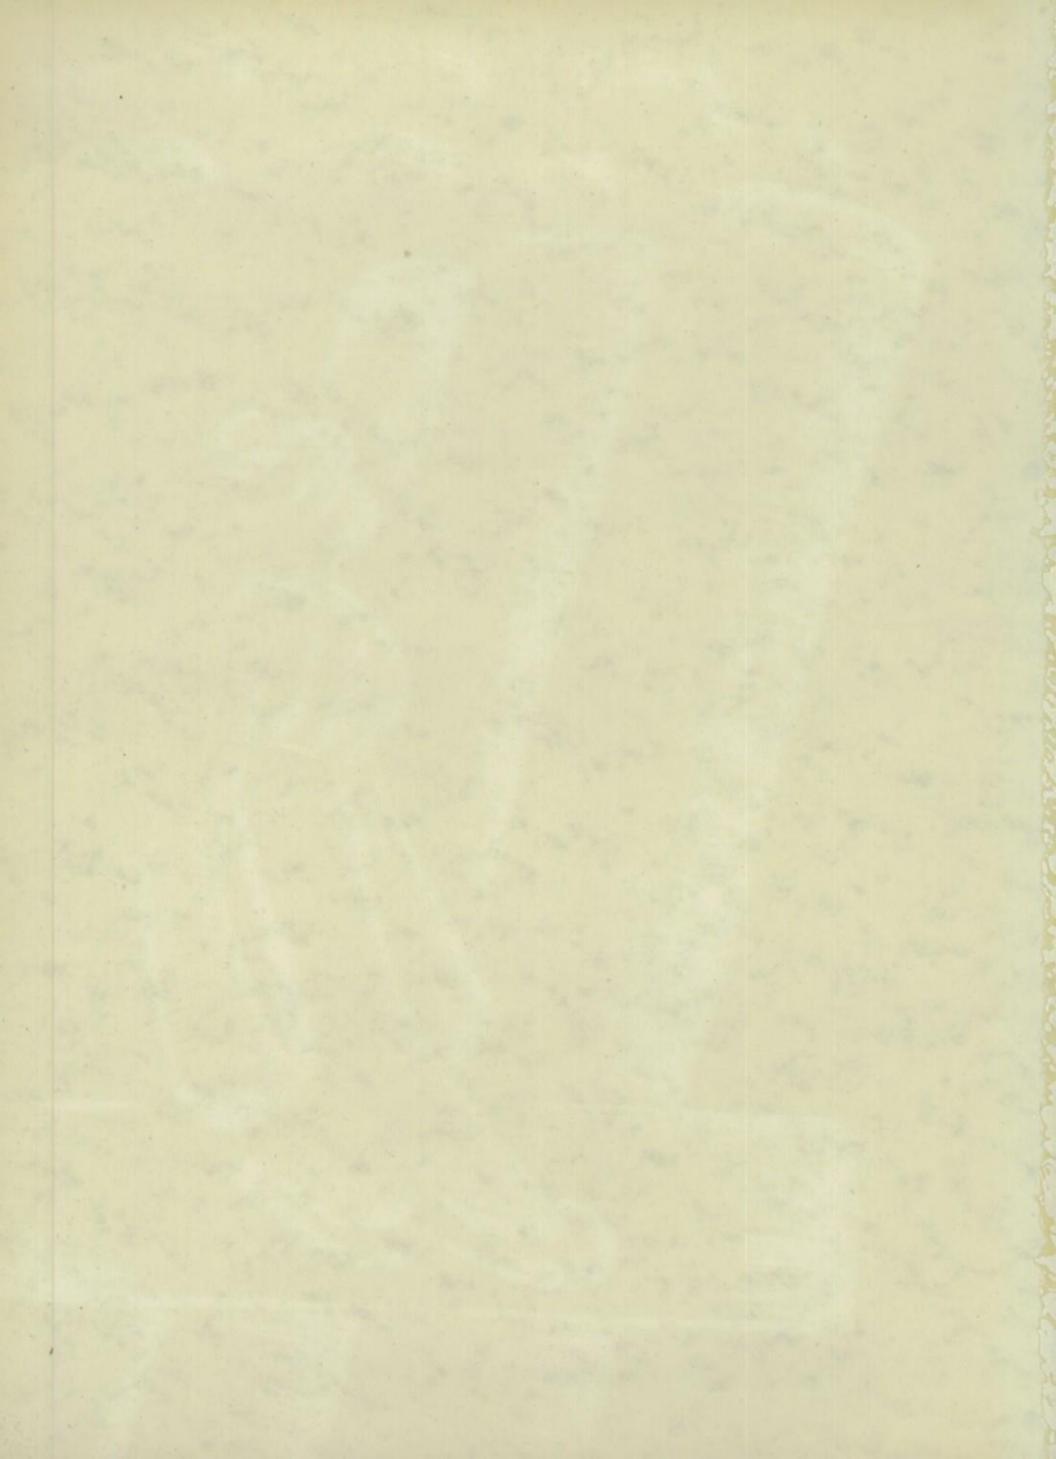

Six hundred and nineteen people make up the personnel of our school. Five hundred and seventy-eight of these are students. Our largest class, the freshman, has one hundred and eighty-one members; next largest, sophomore, one hundred and forty-six; third largest, junior, one hundred and thirty-eight; and smallest, senior, one hundred and twelve, fourteen of whom finished their work in February.

Five board members, one superintendent and principal, twenty-six faculty members, one registrar, a librarian, one secretary, three custodians of grounds and buildings plus four assistants complete our group. Mountain View High School draws its pupils from Los Atos, Mountain View, and Whisman, a district with a population of approximately nine thousand.

The oriental woman looking from her western home toward the east, seemed an appropriate division page for this section.

With One Aim

Pictures of some six hundred of those who make up our school are included in the next twenty pages. Although we represent twenty-four nationalities, we are all Americans with one aim, education.

Instead of appearing on a separate faculty page, advisers to the seniors have individual pictures on the senior panels, and other faculty advisers have been placed with their home room groups. Pictures of the five mid-year classes follow the senior panels. Home room groups of juniors, sophomores, and freshmen complete the section.

Low Seniors

"Among Those Present"—Of the thirty-eight freshmen who enrolled at the high school in February, 1936, only eleven remain in their original group, making the low seniors the smallest home-room unit. Six completed their high school education in three and a half years.

"Block That Kick"—For their assembly program, this group sponsored Ernie Smith, popular Associated sportscaster, who entertained the student body by describing the technique of sportscasting as well as relating some of the numerous incidents which occurred in the broadcaster's booth.

"Music! Maestro, Please"—Organized last December, Ken Wilkens and his four-teen piece "smooth swing" orchestra has proved successful playing for many of the school functions. J. McKevitt, A. Wilkens, and P. Gibson supply the vocal renditions; Ray Murray whistles. Approximately fifty pieces make up their repertoire. The personnel includes A. Schutte, B. "Menace" Moore, V. Martin, E. Freels, M. Thoza, J. Foland, P. Teresi, S. Mattingly, B. Grainger, W. Stalford, E. Pounds, J. Diaz, R. Murray, W. Frigerio, and K. Wilkens.

"Excelers"—Outstanding in athletics, C. Jelavich, H. Malatesta, and Bill Ralston, rank first. Active in track, football, and baseball, Jelavich tops the list; Malatesta played basketball and football while Ralston specialized in basketball. Wilkens was football manager.

As decoration chairman of the Girls' League, Marylee Mills planned artistic decorations for the Mothers' Tea, Girls' and Boys' League Dance, and the Tin Can Dance.

Mid-term Classes

Once in a Blue Moon—For the first time in the history of the school, the 1939 mid-year freshmen class was so large that it had to be divided into two advisories. Miss Caroline Wood, Dean of Girls, sponsored the girls group and Mr. Robert Ruhl, who had previously been a senior sponsor, took the boys.

Their Interests—Displays of hobbies and discussions about them as well as parliamentary law practice enlivened the girls' advisory meetings. A skating party in San Jose, May 5, was the high point in the social activities of Miss Wood's girls.

Unique—Five cents a month in dues from each boy of Mr. Ruhl's advisory finances the activities of the group. Enjoying a swimming party in the school plunge, May 3, provided relaxation for these overworked (?) frosh boys.

Two for One As is customary with mid-year groups, the low sophomore class was one advisory until February, when Mr. Blalock took charge of the boys, and Miss Lowell, the girls.

of its team of enthusiastic boys.

Equally proud is it of its one and only CSF member, Jean Clark.

LOW JUNIORS

Interior Decorators—Complete charge of decorating for the Junior Days of '49 was taken by Mr. Smith's advisory, with Bob Lawson as chairman. Transforming the gym into an early California mining town with gambling houses, bars (soft drinks), a rail tence surrounding the dance floor, and even a hangman, was a difficult task cleverly done.

Solitary—Low Juniors boast of one CSF member, Ann Takano.

Tossers—Boys in the advisory have participated in after school inter-advisory basketball games and have won several.

Wild and Woolly—Under the leadership of R. Graham, general committee chairman, "Junior Days of '49" proved to be a colorful event with its early California mining-town setting and its wild west costumed crowd. Winners of the Dandy and Belle contest were F. Mack and M. Lawson, seniors.

Sponsors—Miss Helen Coleman, Mr. J. B. Lehan, Mrs. Helen Rachford, and Miss Louise Schmidt are the advisers of the junior class. During a few weeks of the first semester, Miss Coleman was absent because of illness. Mr. Edward Blalock substituted for her. Miss Schmidt was away during part of the spring semester. Mr. E. Valentine and later Miss Patricia Keenan took her classes.

Plaque Winners—With fifteen juniors, Corey, Henderson, Keene, Kenyon, Kerrick, McMurray, Nagao, Nakano, Schraub, Sutter, Takano, Teramura, Uhrhammer, and Vorrath, qualifying for the CSF, third year students won the honor plaque for the spring semester.

"Swing Your Partners"—Hayseeds, cowboys, tramps, hog callers, milk maids, hill-billy music, and old fashioned and modern dances combined to make the barn dance given by the sophomores to welcome the 1938 freshmen an hilarious affair. School tradition insists that the sophomore class sponsor this first social event of the fall semester.

Sages—Eleven sophomores compose the class membership in the California Scholarship Federation. These are: Doty, Garcia, Gibson, Holzhauer, Kelly, Magius, Mize, Nozawa, Okada, Shibuya, Wilson.

Olympians—Tennis and track have proved to be the soph's favorite sports. Sophomores won the interclass track meet easily. The M. V. tennis team is composed largely of members of this class.

Just Frosh—Varying in size from Sonny Robart to Jim Blach, 150 frightened freshmen entered school last fall; incidentally this was the largest freshman group ever to come to this school. They soon grew out of the shy age and proved to their upperclassmen that they too could take part in school activities.

A Good Beginning—Giving their attentions to school organizations, several of the girls took part in G. A. A. and the boys represented the class in interclass basketball, and track. Davis, Hincelot, Izu, Klee, Kozaki, Kubota, Nishi, Stanwood and Yoshida are the six per cent of the class who qualified for the California Scholarship Federation. During book week, the freshmen put on their thinking caps and wrote some very clever slogans. Virginia Bryant and Jean Clark received awards for their efforts.

Carrying the Burden—When the freshmen arrived they needed so much advice that the responsibility of guiding them was given to four faculty members who had helped the 1938 seniors graduate. Mr. Irval Carter, Miss Rebecca Gibson, Mr. Wendell Grubb, and Miss Edna Wilbur, were the teachers who received this honor.

Political Bosses—Evidentally the freshmen were so pleased with the first class administration that they decided to keep the same officers for the second semester.

Scholarship Jederation

Studious Scholars—Fifty students comprised the CSF roll for 1938-39, fifteen seniors, fourteen juniors, eleven sophomores, and ten freshmen. The seal of the organization cast in metal and mounted on a wooden shield is presented each semester to the class with the largest percentage of membership Seniors won it for the fall semester, and juniors for the spring semester.

Seven Worthy Winners—Sponsoring the annual Book Week Contest was the first major project this year. Winners were: freshmen, best slogans, V. Bryant and J. Clark; sophomores, best summary on ten books, P. Gibson and J. Berkowitz; juniors, book reports, G. Nagao and M. Popovich; seniors, best essay on a subject related to books, D. McClure. In the last four years Dick has entered three of these contests and has won three.

Annual Convention—Thirty-five students enjoyed the CSF convention held this year at Treasure Island, March 18. Concluding the business meeting was a talk by Father Feely, instructor at the University of San Francisco.

Aloha Oe To raise money for the Scholarship Fund, an Hawaiian sports dance was given April 28. Leis, Hawaiian dancing girls, and the "swingy" Hawaiian rhythm of Kenny Wilken's orchestra provided atmosphere rivaling the islands themselves. Profits from this dance plus an equal amount given by the Student Body went to the Fund. Started last year, the fund is to provide aid for any student desiring to go to college, but who cannot because of financial difficulties.

Mountain Eagle

Newshawks—Publishing the four-page Mountain Eagle every two weeks during the fall semester, every three weeks during the spring semester, and contributing twice a week to the local paper in a special high school section, has been the work of the journalism classes under Mr. Harry Edwards, instructor.

Co-editors for the first semester were Betty Keene and Toyoko Nakamoto; for the second, Gladys Nagao and Dema Hughes.

The Talk of the School—To promote school spirit and create friendship among our students and between our school and other schools with which we exchange, to furnish an outlet for the work of the journalism classes and a medium for advertising school events are the purposes served by our paper. It is financed by the student body with the help of the Board of Trustees, and does not carry commercial advertisements.

During the second semester, the paper was enlarged and new features such as "They Say", "Tin Pan Alley", "Picture Parodies", and "Pencil Portraits" columns were added.

Behind the Scenes—In order to understand the "scenes" behind newspaper publishing, the first semester group was taken on a complete tour of the Chronicle Building. They were shown how news is carried to the San Francisco papers by United and Associated Presses as well as by wirephotos. Cliff Walk, former advertising manager of the Redwood City Tribune, gave a talk on newspaper advertising.

Entertainment—A talk on crime by Allen P. Truly in League—The Boys' League joined the Girls' League in sponsoring a dance on March 10 to raise money for the student body.

In Appreciation—Thanks to the generosity of the Board of Trustees, a removable boxing ring was purchased for the Boys' League boxing matches.

Carrying On—Helping welcome freshmen each year and improving the school in as many ways as possible are a large part of the tradition established by the Boys' League in the past. These very worth while objectives have been furthered considerably this year.

Filling the Bill—Proving to be more successful than the usual formal monthly meetings, round table discussions on such subjects as "How To Be Popular" and "Minding One's Manners," made up the 1938-1939 chapter of the Girls' League meetings. Dr. Bertha Mason from San Jose State College and Mr. Harry Wilson Isaacs, vocational adviser from San Francisco, gave worthwhile talks. Ten Stanford co-eds briefly introduced us to campus life by discussing "What To Expect from College and What College Expects from You," as well as presenting a style show of campus fashions.

Doing Our Best — Irene Rutan headed a committee which filled nineteen Christmas baskets with food, candy, and toys for distribution to needy families in our community. The annual Tin Can Dance was the climax of collecting dolls, marbles, and other playthings along with the cans of food the girls brought for their admission to the dance.

Social Highlights—An impromptu performance by "Professor" Robert Ruhl and a skit by Claire Thompson and Beverly Kogelshatz topped off a dance in February presented by the Boys' and Girls' Leagues. Kenny Wilkens' orchestra swung out; vocals were supplied by Elaine Marcetti, Peggy Atkinson, Bill Duggan, and Clarence Milovina.

For the Mothers—Gayly decorated with spring flowers, the gym again set a beautiful stage for the Mothers' Tea, to which the student's mother received an invitation. Gardenias were given to the guests as they entered the auditorium where the first part of the program, a pageant, 'The Career of Motherhood,' was presented. As this tea is the most gala event of the school year, it merited a fashion show given by girls from Mrs. Downey's home economics classes. Clothes were made by the girls who modeled them.

Trophy-Teers—Having won the University of California choir contest, the A Cappella Choir was presented with a silver trophy. Other appearances of the choir were at the Santa Clara County Spring Conference, April 13, and on Treasure Island, April 21, and May 11. Singing with representatives of Pacific Coast choirs, M. Escano and F. Tupper, accompanied by their director, Miss Helen Froehlich, attended the Music conference held at Long Beach during spring vacation.

Moments Musical—Sponsoring four after-school recitals, was the most important work of the Girls' Chorus. Members of the vocal and piano classes presented the first musical, Jan. 17. Vocal soloists were Floyd and Paul Piper; piano duet, A. Schutte and V. Taylor, and R. McMurray. Mr. Campbell's String Ensemble played for the second musical, February 28, with E. Gillingham and P. Piper playing the solos.

Serenaders—Christmas carols were sung by the Madrigal Singers in candlelight for the Christmas program. Their second appearance was at the fourth after-school nusical.

Encore! Seven Times!—Five school appearances and two outside performances kept the members of the orchestra busy. Opening its season by playing Christmas carols for the annual Christmas play, the orchestra was well received. Its next performance was a demonstration of musical instruments for the low freshmen. Other school appearances were at the Junior Days of '49, the Senior play, and the June Commencement. The two outside performances of the orchestra were at the San Jose Auditorium, April 15, and on Treasure Island, May 24.

On Parade—Clad in their new blue and grey uniforms, which they had dreamed of having for such a long time, the forty-nine band members played at most of the athletic events, as well as marched for the Mountain View Festival parade and the community Christmas parade, and again at Treasure Island, May 24. New uniforms added to the success of the annual open air concert on the front lawn, June 12.

Modern Atlantas—Swimming and tennis opened the fall season of afterschool sports for girls. Competing with girls from several peninsula schools, Dorothy Erichsen, swimming manager, won second place in the diving division of a San Mateo swimming meet held early in the fall.

Basketball and volleyball games came next. During the season the M. V. girls attended playdays at Fremont, Campbell, Los Gatos, and a County Sports Day at San Jose. Later in the fall these schools were invited here for a volleyball playday, and during the spring, M. V. entertained the Girls' Peninsula Athletic League with a banquet and two short movies on skiing and swimming.

A Penny a Play—A four-court volleyball tournament; races, sack, Sir Walter Raleigh, and three-legged, in the gym; tennis matches on the courts; and swimming and diving in the pool offered both boys and girls opportunities to accumulate points for prizes in the annual penny Sports Day held in April for the benefit of the Girls' League. Two cans of tennis balls were awarded the winners of the day; Bobby Lawson for the boys, and Dot Erichsen for the Girls.

Willing Workers—To promote a better understanding between American students and students of Japanese origin and to render service to the school and the community are the purposes of the Mountain View Japanese Club. Under Masao Nakano, president, and Mr. Robert Ruhl, adviser, the newly organized club took an active part in school affairs by sponsoring a booth at the Junior Days of '49 and by filling Christmas baskets to help the Girls' League.

Social—Occasionally meeting at Mr. Ruhl's house for business, for card games and for "get-acquainted" parties, added considerably to the pleasures of the members.

Under the able direction of Mrs. Phyllis S. Windeler, Stan Anderson, and Les Carpenter, M. V. girls and boys had an active sports season. Our school belongs to the Girls' Peninsula Athletic League and participated in several playdays and conferences with member schools. Interschool competition for boys is carried out through the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League. Les Carpenter, new to the school this year, coached the tens, twenties, and thirties basketball teams, while Stan Anderson coached the foolball, unlimited basketball, and baseball teams. M. V. teams placed high in the league ratings.

Football

Handicapped by injuries which hampered our team all season, the M. V. eleven concluded the 1938 football schedule in a tie with Los Gatos for third place in the Santa Clara Valley League. The early season injury of Atkinson crippled the left side of the line. Later in the season, injuries which kept Barkley out of the Santa Clara game and which kept Facciolla, Milovina, and Tripiano from playing in the Los Gatos game, deprived us of our power.

Under the hot sun the Eagles eked out a 7 to 6 victory over the Gilroy Mustangs in our first league game. Our only score was made by Barkley plunging through from the six yard line for a touchdown; Facciolla kicked the goal for the extra point which was the margin of victory. The Mustangs were unable to make any yardage through our strong line led by Izu, Brandt, Facciolla, and Jelavich. Only once, when the Gilroy half went around end for a score, were the opponents able to break through our defense.

In their second game with Hayward, a strong non-league team, the Eagles lost 21-0. Barkley, Facciolla, Izu, Milovina, Gartly, and May were outstanding players for the Eagles. Lack of experience, however, counted against our team.

Showing a vast improvement over their former game, our team swamped the Bells of Campbell 38-0. Their fast, high-powered play made the Eagles look like a rejuvenated team. May, Barkley, Tripiano, and Gartly all scored for the Eagles.

In a game which developed into a front line battle, the Eagles and the Santa Clara Panthers played to a 0-0 tie. Feeling was high, and both teams fought desperately for every yard. M. V. made the only concentrated drive in the second half when it marched from midfield to the Santa Clara 20, with May blasting inside the tackles for 5 and 6 yards at a time. The line that held the Panthers was made up of Izu, Facciolla, Jensen, Milovina, Mena, and Brandt.

Meeting a team that was ready for action, the Eagles bowed to Washington under an 18-0 score. M. V. could not get under way after the first quarter, and in the last three periods was busy stopping the Washington goal-bound team. Brandt, Facciolla, and Izu in the line, and Barkley and May in the backfield played good ball.

With the season coming around the turn for home, the Eagles met their ancient rivals, the Fremont Indians. M. V. utilized two breaks for touchdowns to mow down their rivals for a 14-0 score. Barkley, halfback, caught a pass thrown by May and ran the ball down to the Fremont 3, where he fumbled; and Jelavich, end, recovered over the goal for the first score. May scored the second goal on a 65 yard run.

In the closing game of the season, a riddled Eagle eleven was unable to cope with a heavy Los Gatos team and fell under a 22-0 score. This victory for the "Cats" put M. V. and Los Gatos in a tie for third place in the league.

Tens-Twenties—Under the supervision of Les Carpenter, their new coach, the tens and twenties teams enjoyed a fairly successful season. Their only grief was that the season was short, four games in all, and they were just hitting their stride about the time the last game was played.

Holzhauer, Tsuchiya, Sueki, Taylor, Yamamoto, and Toi for the twenties and Frigerio, Kanzaki, Miyashita, Toi, Izu, and Jacobsen for the tens were outstanding players as they fought their rivals bitterly and lost the majority of their games because of unfortunate last minute breaks. Of their four games, the twenties lost three, and the tens lost two. In their first league game of the season, the Eagles met the Washington Corn Huskers and were defeated by the scores of 32-21 in the tens game, and 25-19 in the twenties game. Jim Holzhauer with nine points and Nori Sueki with six, carried the brunt of the attack for the Eagles in the twenties games. Albert Jacobsen led the attack of the tens.

Our second league battles were with San Jose Tech in San Jose. The Eagles came home with a split double-header, the tens capturing their game by the score of 15-6, while the twenties after a desperate rally were defeated, 15-13. Frigerio was the spark of the tens attack, making 8 points. Taylor and Yamamoto won for the twenties.

TENS

TWENTIES

Inspired rallies in the latter part of both games by the Santa Clara Panthers resulted in two heart-breaking losses to the Eagle tens and twenties; scores: 10-22, tens, and 22-24, twenties. High scorer for the tens was Jacobsen with nine points, while Sueki for the twenties hit the basket for six points.

During the last lap of the season the light-weights put on a stiff drive to whip the Live Oak boys in both games of the double header by scores of 16-1 in the tens game and 30-26 in the twenties. Izu, Frigerio, and Robart were the bulwark of the tens final game. Sueki, the twenties forward, went wild scoring 16 points, with Holzhauer taking 8. Thus concluded the shortest season in the tens and twenties history, so short in fact, that it hampered the boys from showing their ability.

Others who took part in the games were Okamura, Yamaji, Farley, Stanwood, and Toda for the tens. Getting in some exciting games for the twenties were Gray, Graham, Paullus, Connick, Blasquez, Morton, and Okamura.

THIRTIES

Row 1: Ralston, Huber, Brown, Miyouchi. Row 2: Murray, Simin, Miyahara, True, Ishimura. Row 3: Carpenter, Vojvoda, Jacobsen, Britton, Mena, Gonzales.

Thirties and Unlimiteds—Placing second in the valley league, M. V. thirties coached by Les Carpenter, were nosed out of first place by Los Gatos. The unlimiteds, under the direction of Stan Anderson, had a very hard season, tying with Los Gatos for third place in the valley league. After only a few days of practice, the thirties were unable to take their first game from San Jose Tech., score 18-20. The unlimiteds took their season opener, San Jose Tech, with an easy victory, 34-20.

At Campbell, Eagle thirties won 17-12, and unlimiteds lost 14-29. Murray, Ralston, and Ishimaru played brilliantly for the thirties.

The thirties won the third league game with Centerville, 19-12, while the unlimiteds lost 19-24. Huber and Britton, thirties, were top scorers for their team.

Both M. V. teams defeated Gilroy, scores: thirties, 26-24; and unlimiteds, 36-23.

At Fremont the Eagle thirties won a hard fight, 29-22; while the unlimiteds were on the top of a 31-16 score. Huber and Murray led the Eagle scoring.

Basketball

Basketball

The thirties defeated Live Oak 30-17 because of the fast play of Brown, Simin, and Ishimaru. Eagle unlimiteds took their game with Live Oak 46-26. Funabiki, Higashiuchi, Tripiano, May and Jelavich developed into an unlimited combination which most teams found hard to beat.

Huber, Britton, and Ralston played good ball when Les Carpenter's thirties next defeated Santa Clara, 28-26; and the unlimiteds rose to a 19-40 victory.

Los Gatos is the only team in the valley league which defeated both the thirties and the unlimiteds. The thirties lost, 35-18, and the unlimiteds 43-31.

The players returning for action include, Jelavich, Hemenis, Henderson, Hammes, Simin, Britton, Garcia, and Mena. M. V. lost the first game of the season to Fremont, 11 to 3. Charlie Jelavich, the Eagles' ace pitcher, was unable to play in this game because of arm injuries. The Eagles' second game was with Palo Alto. Victory was easy for M. V.'s nine. M. V.'s second league game, with San Jose Tech., found the Eagles on the short end of a 9 to 7 score.

Tennis

Under their new coach, Les Carpenter, the 1939 tennis team hoped to ride to victory, as did last season's team. # Girls' Sports

In the early autumn the girls' gym classes alternate in hockey, tennis, and swimming. Winter finds them playing basketball and volleyball, and learning folk dancing. Our spring program is rather full with tennis, archery, swimming, baseball, and modern dancing.

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen formed mixed teams to play basketball in class. These teams are designated by colored jackets, as the red, blue, yellow, or green teams. The girls defend color teams instead of their classes.

"Golds" in archery were the goals for those who wished to take part in the Exhibition Night program, June 1. Girls with the highest scores placed on the program.
